The Honorable Joe M. Kilgore /
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Kilgore:

Thank you for your letter of 6 February concerning

[redacted]

I have looked over the present possibilities for his employment with us and regret to tell you that we cannot offer much encouragement at this time. Our needs are primarily for stenographic-secretarial and junior professional people. [redacted] record indicates that he did not finish high school and has worked mainly in semi-skilled custodial and maintenance jobs with more recent experience as a shipping clerk. We have extremely limited requirements for personnel with that type of experience.

In view of the rather dim future prospects for Mr. [redacted] with our organization, it would seem better not to arouse false hopes by asking him for current application papers to retain for later consideration. However, if you wish, I will be glad to have this done.

In accordance with your request, your letter from Mr. [redacted] is enclosed.

Sincerely,
